An accident

There has been an accident this morning near Peter's house, at the corner of High Street and Church Street. It was half past eight in the morning, half an hour ago. Peter was having breakfast and watching the news on TV before going to work. He heard a noise and ran to the window. Apparently a car stopped at the traffic lights and a bus hit it. Three passengers have been hurt and the bus driver has broken his arm. The police have already arrived. The driver of the car was not hurt. The strange thing is that then he didn't stay. He got out of the car and ran away. The police have found a lot of money in the car. Three men robbed a bank near there ten minutes before the accident. The man must be one of the thieves. The police say that they will find him, but now they are helping the passengers. The ambulance hasn't arrived yet and somebody must take them to hospital. Peter offered to take them in his own car, but the police said it would be too dangerous for the passengers and him.
