What's your idea of a dream home?

TEXT 1

Bruce Campbell, from Portland, Oregon in the United States, had his own special dream. He bought an old Boeing 727 aeroplane for $100,000 and renovated it into his dream home. Campbell took out all the seats. The empty space became his living room and bedroom. The cockpit, the place where pilots sit, became his office. Campbell turned one of the bathrooms into a small laundry room where he washes his clothes. He also added a tiny kitchen in the area for the food trolleys. He hopes to meet a woman who wants to live in an aeroplane instead of a flat. Then, if this home becomes too small, he'll move to a 747!

'Hello, I'm Bridget! I live on a houseboat on the River Seine with my husband, Alain, and our daughter, Isabel. I met Alain eight years ago when I was on holiday here in Paris, but I'm from Ireland originally. We've been married for six years and I've lived here since our wedding day. The boat has got everything we want – a kitchen, a big living room, two bedrooms, a bathroom, central heating and a small garden. The best thing about our home is that it moves. We can leave tomorrow and go anywhere we want.'
